

This is the story of Spooka Dabrah . . .
The pupils in 6E have met her, and here is their exclusive report!
Don't be afraid to meet her . . .

Chapter one

Our journalist met a witch yesterday. He prepared questions to know more about her. Here is his exclusive interview.

What is your name? My name is Spooka Dabrah.

How old are you? I don't remember.

Are you nice or are you wicked? I am a wicked witch.

Can you fly? Yes, but only on my broom.

Where do you live? I live on Pluto at 13, Hell Street, next to the cemetery.

Can you cast spells? Of course, do you want proof?

Have you got pets? Yes, I have a black, pink and green bird, a black cat, a blue camel, a yellow dog, a green shark, a dragon, a toad, three bats, a white dinosaur, twenty snakes, ten spiders and twelve crocodiles.

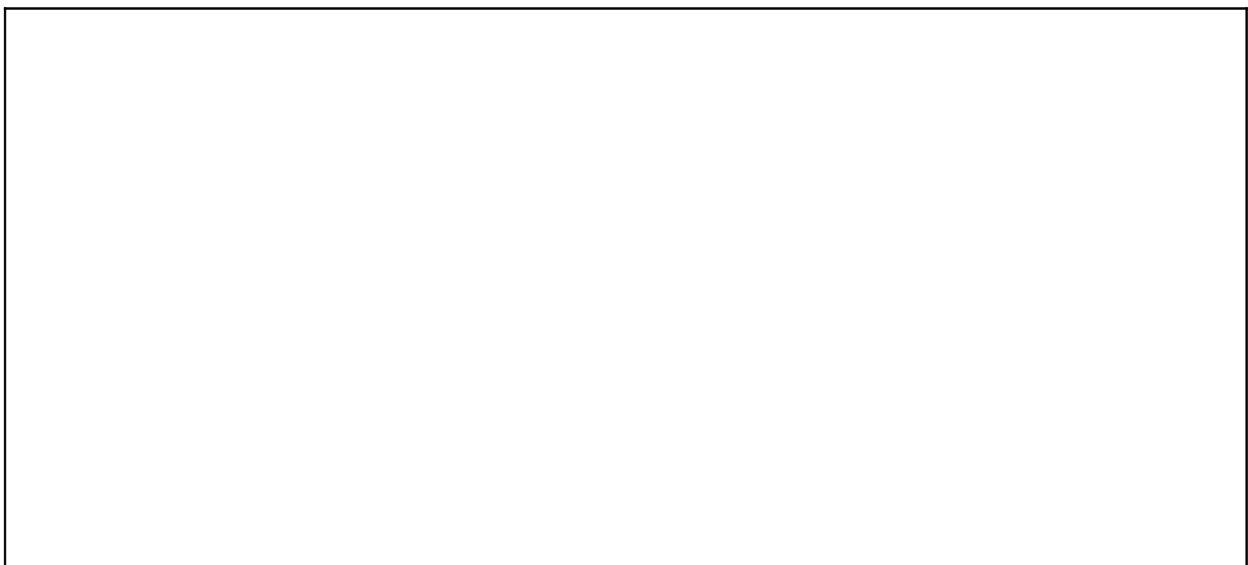

What is your job? I am a caster of spells. I kill human beings (500$ each). I make various potions.

Have you got children? Yes, I have. It is in my tummy.

What is your telephone number? My phone number is (00 34) 999 9999.

Where were you born? I was born in the Black Forest, in Hell.

Are you married? I had a husband, but he tried to escape and I ate him.

Chapter two

Spooka's family

She has got one sister, Spookinette, who is a zombie and one brother, Spooky, who is a vampire. Her mother is in an asylum and her dad, Spookfly, is crazy.

She has got three cousins: Pushy, Spookia and Hiroshima. The legend says that Spooka killed her whole family.

Spooka's daily routine

At 8.00 a.m., Spooka gets up.

At 9.30 a.m., she has breakfast: she has urine, rotten eggs and rat eyes.

At 10.00 a.m., she has a shower of toad dribble.

At 10.30 a.m., she prepares potions.

From 11.00 a.m. to 12.00 a.m., she goes to witch school. Then she watches TV.

At 12.15 p.m., she has lunch. Then she goes for a ride on her broom and then she goes back to bed.

At 8.00 p.m., she gets up, then she has breakfast again and another shower. At 10.15 p.m., she prepares potions again and watches TV. After her second ride, she goes back to bed.

So she has two days in one.

Spooka's tastes

Food: she loves booger cookies. She likes children with tomato ketchup. She loves gland jam and toad marmalade. She drinks urine.

Activities: she likes picking her nose, casting spells and killing human beings. She also likes flying on her broom and scaring people.

Spooka's abilities

She can fly with a broom. She can swim. She can't be nice. She can transform into a fish. She can kill immortal people. She can bring dead people back to life.

She can't smile. She can't open a present. She can't read and she can't write. She can't cook. She can't sing and she can't laugh.

Spooka is picking her nose

Chapter three

Spooka's physical description

She has got long green hair. She has got one purple eye and one red eye. She has got black lips and yellow teeth. She has got a very white skin. She hasn't got any nails and she hasn't got eyebrows. She has got a big nose and a very big bottom. She hasn't got any toes. She has got an orange tongue and a lot of verucas. She has got six fingers and she is very hairy. In her hair, there are flies and spiders!

Spooka's habits

Spooka jogs on her broom every morning. She swims in the clouds every morning. She invents potions and plays Quidditch with Harry Potter. She has a reunion with her fellow witches every Tuesday evening. She does her shopping in shops and hunts men every Sunday afternoon. She also drinks blood with her pets.

Witch rules

Witches have rules. Spooka must follow them. So she must eat one child a week. She must have only one shower a month. She has to make human soup every day and sell some to her sisters. She must brush her teeth with rabbit poop. She has to scare people in the streets. She must create storms and celebrate Halloween. She must also go to Witchland every decade. She must go out at night and protect her castle.

But she mustn't be nice. She mustn't wash her hands after going to the ladies room (toilets) and she mustn't brush her teeth. She must only wash with toad dribble. She mustn't cry. She must honour her magic broom.

Chapter four

Spooka's best memories

Work:

She ate her boss and ate a child who tasted like chocolate.

She photocopied her bottom and sent her colleagues to hell.

She destroyed the place where she worked and kidnapped the new boss.

Holidays:

She remembers that she went to Skull Beach and bathed in the Booger Sea.

She met a cyclop. He was stronger than her but she was more intelligent than him, so she won the battle.

She met a love group composed of: a snake named Bibou, a spider named Crotty, a bat named Batman, a skeleton named Crac-Crac and a zombie named Frankenstein.

Spooka's worst memories

Work:

One day, Spooka was working when suddenly a child believed she was his mum, so he kissed her.

Another day, her boss flirted with her.

One day, Spooka was working on her computer and her cat had a pee on the keyboard. So she bought a new computer and her new mouse went in the new computer.

Holidays:

She won a beauty contest.

She was tickled by a skeleton.

She ate a rotten pumpkin.

She danced with a gentleman.

She saw a hamster, but she is afraid of hamsters.

One day, she was at Eurodisney. When she woke up, she smelled her armpits and they smelled good.

One day, during the summer, she accidentally went to hell.

One day, during the winter, she wanted to go to Witchland, but she went to Hinduland instead.

Another day, she exploded her veruca.

Her best friend died on a plane as she was going to the Bahamas.

Spooka's favourite recipe

Booger cookies

Ingredients:

200 gr of booger
150 gr of rotten flour
Rabbit poop chunks
Cat hair
1 ostrich egg
1 tablespoon of liquid soap
1 pinch of veruca
2 tablespoons of toad dribble
17 mosquito legs
32 cockroach feelers
3 sardine testicles

Preheat the oven (270°c).

In a bowl, mix together the flour, the cat hair, the rabbit poop chunks, the mosquito legs, the cockroach feelers and the sardine testicles.

In another bowl, mix together the booger, the ostrich egg, the soap and the toad dribble. Pour the first mixture into the other bowl and mix well.

Pour the mixture in a square tin and bake for 162 minutes.

Serve with sock juice or dog pee.

Taste it: it's delicious!!!
